SIMON & PARTNERS LLP

“Relentless in the pursuit of justice”

—The Philadelphia Inquirer describing Simon & Partners founder Bradley D. Simon

SIMON & PARTNERS LLP IS AN 11-LAWYER FIRM based in New York with an office in Washington, D.C., and an affiliate office in Paris. Bradley D. Simon, named to the 2009 Super Lawyers® list, founded the firm in 1998.

Simon & Partners specializes in criminal and civil litigation as well as domestic and international business matters. The firm represents individuals, as well as private and public companies, located both within the United States and abroad.

Simon & Partners has quickly emerged as one of the premier boutique law firms in New York City. In its litigation practice, the firm has repeatedly obtained successful trial verdicts for its clients. The impressive results that the firm has obtained have been widely noted. Brad Simon and Brian Waller have been named to 2009 New York Super Lawyers and Pamela Stuart, attorney in charge of Simon & Partners' Washington DC office, has been named to 2009 Washington DC Super Lawyers.

Simon, a veteran former federal prosecutor, has been the subject of numerous articles and profiles in newspapers throughout the United States. The Philadelphia Inquirer has described him as “relentless in the pursuit of justice.” On July 21, 2007, The New York Times discussed Simon's experience representing high-profile public figures and noted that the client's decision to hire Simon signaled a far more “combative” strategy.

Individuals and companies throughout the United States and Europe regularly enlist the services of Simon & Partners. Simon is particularly proud of the team he has assembled and the wide range of expertise that the firm provides. Its work is consistently praised by judges in federal and state courts.

Simon & Partners is committed to providing its clients with the quality of service traditionally offered by the largest U.S. law firms while efficiently and cost effectively producing outstanding results.
